LOS ANGELES, CA – The Housing Rights Center (HRC), and the City of Alhambra, will be hosting a FREE ‘Fair Housing Workshop’ for Alhambra residents and community members on Wednesday, October 7, 2015 from 4:30pm to 6:30pm in Reese Hall of the Alhambra Civic Center Library located 101 S. First Street, Alhambra, CA 91801. HRC will present information and resources regarding housing discrimination and landlord-tenant rights and responsibilities.

Topics will include: discrimination against families with children, disability rights, sexual harassment, evictions, repairs, security deposits, rent increases, substandard conditions, and much more!

Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, known as the “Fair Housing Act,” provides protection from discrimination in all housing related transactions based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status and disability. Furthermore, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act provides additional protections against housing discrimination based on marital status, ancestry, sexual orientation, and source of income. The California Unruh Civil Rights Act also provides protection from housing discrimination based on age and protects the right to freedom from violence and intimidation in housing.
