Addressing the City Arts and Cultural Events Commission:

Via Zoom or Telephone: "Raise your hand" - Members of the public may speak by using the "Raise Hand" function during the public comments portion, if on Zoom or telephone. Staff will unmute speakers participating via Zoom or telephone and announce your name when it is your time to speak.

Remarks are limited to 5 minutes; however, the presiding officer may either extend or reduce the maximum time to such period of time as the City Arts and Cultural Events Commission may determine.

For those wishing to speak on an agenda item, please e-mail Kelsey Rivadeneyra at kelsey@cityofalhambra.org prior to the meeting with the item number you wish to speak on and your name. You should then join into the meeting 10 minutes prior to its start time. Ms. Rivadeneyra will announce to you when it is your time to speak. You will have five minutes to speak, unless that time is adjusted by the President.

As an alternative you can e-mail your comments by sending them to kelsey@cityofalhambra.org no later than 5:00 P.M. on Wednesday February 15, 2023 to ensure that it will be printed prior to the beginning of the meeting. Comments will then be read into the record, with a maximum allowance of 5 minutes per individual comment, subject to the President's discretion. If a comment is received after 5:00 P.M. but before the conclusion of the meeting based on its time stamp, the comment will still be included as a part of the record of the meeting but will not be read into the record.

Any member of the public who needs accommodations or who needs their comments translated should e-mail or call Kelsey Rivadeneyra at kelsey@cityofalhambra.org or (626) 570-5044 who will use their best efforts to provide reasonable accommodations to provide as much accessibility as possible while also maintaining public safety. Given the challenges of video conference meetings, all participants are encouraged to e-mail their comments prior to the beginning of the meeting.
