My name is Sasha Renée Pérez. I'm an educator, community organizer, and city commissioner. I've spent the last decade working in public policy: securing millions in funding for education, expanding healthcare for low-income families, and empowering people to understand how their government works.

As I've worked to open doors for others, I've watched politicians shut working people out. I'm sick of officials who use their positions to enrich themselves. I'm running to be a champion for everyday people, and I won't take money from special interests.

I understand the challenges that Alhambrans face and have the experience to get things done.

I will:

- Preserve & improve our quality of life
- Support local small businesses
- Promote government transparency
- Ensure public safety
- Address housing/homelessness
- Create a sustainable future

Our quality public schools, vibrant businesses, and family-oriented community brought my grandparents here in the '60s. Three generations later, I'm running because we deserve a bright future for ourselves and the next generation. That is the Alhambra Dream and that is what I'm fighting for.

I'm proudly endorsed by:

- Councilmember Adele Andrade-Stadler
- Alhambra Democratic Club
- Over a dozen labor organizations
- And more!

Vote Sasha Renée Pérez on November 3, 2020!
